

Newsweek

WORLD

The Kabul Bombing: It Could Have Been Us

BY RON MOREAU ON 2/25/10 AT 7:00 PM EST

WORLD

Taliban Claims Responsibility For Kabul Attacks

February 26, 2010 - 8:28 AM ET

BBC Sign in News Sport Weather Capital TV Radio More... Search BBC

NEWS ▶ WATCH ONE-MINUTE WORLD NEWS

News Front Page Page last updated at 13:49 GMT, Friday, 26 February 2010

E-mail this to a friend Printable version

Afghanistan capital Kabul hit by suicide attack

Africa

Nepal | October 30, 2000

The Himalayan

Search The Himalayan Times

Video E-Paper

Home Kathmandu Nepal World Opinion Business Sports Lifestyle Entertainment Education Technology Horoscope

The Himalayan Times > World > Foreigners among 16 dead in Taliban attacks on Kabul
Foreigners among 16 dead in Taliban attacks on Kabul

Published: February 06, 2010 12:34 AM On: World

AGENCE FRANCE PRESSE

Share News

< Home

CTV NEWS

Advertisement

CTV NEWS

Taliban strike Kabul hotels, killing at least 16

CTV.ca News Staff

Published Friday, February 26, 2010 8:57PM EST

Last Updated Saturday, May 19, 2012 10:34M EDT

ALJAZEERA News US Elections Features Economy Opinion Video

News

Taliban fighters attack Kabul

At least 17 people dead after assault on guesthouses used by foreigners.

Get Unlimited WIRED Access

SUBSCRIBE

NATION ISSUE SECURITY 02.26.2010 10:32 AM

The Taliban Strike Afghan Capital, Again (Updated)

While the United States and NATO press an offensive in rural southern Afghanistan, the Taliban are continuing dramatic attacks in the capital, Kabul. Earlier today, militants struck a high-rise hotel and guesthouses frequented by foreigners in the city's relatively upscale Shahr-e-Now neighborhood. One of the attacks hit Safi Landmark Hotel, a prominent glass-and-concrete building near [...]

The New York Times

Guesthouses Used by Foreigners in Kabul Hit in Deadly Attacks

OCIS NEWS NEWS 2010 ELECTIONS SHOWS LIVE

Brazen Attack Kills at Least 16 in Kabul

FEBRUARY 26, 2010 / 1:00 AM / CND/AF

FP news | analysis | podcasts | the magazine | channels | newsletters
FP INSIDER ACCESS POWER MAPS CONFERENCE CALLS SPECIAL REPORTS | SPY PLUS

THE SOUTH ASIA CHANNEL

Taliban attack on Mohammed's birthday